Connoisseur Gallery in Bedminster
Congratulates Rhoda Yanow

Rhoda Yanow received an Honorable Mention in the 2015 Philadelphia Water Color Society Member Show, for her pastel titled "The Director"

April 8, 2015 -- Bedminster, NJ -- The Connoisseur Gallery is proud to announce that Rhoda Yanow, received an Honorable Mention. The Philadelphia Water Color Society 2015 Online Members Show can be seen on line. Follow the 2015 Member Exhibition link from the Events drop down above to see all of the submitted entries.

The Philadelphia Water Color Society was founded in 1900 to offset the then common exhibition prejudice against watercolor. Chartered in 1922 as a corporation, it continued its mission of furthering works on paper (including all water media, pastel, charcoal, pencil, and hand pulled prints) by offering artists the opportunities to exhibit, and to offer the public a chance to learn about these media through professionally juried exhibitions.

To see more works by Rhoda Yanow visit the Connoisseur Gallery, Bedminster, NJ, or online at www.cfineart.com.

Rhoda Yanow, PSA - Rhoda, a New Jersey native, is a widely exhibited National and International artist. After years of study she completed her art education at the Parsons School of Design and the National Academy of Design in New York City. Ms. Yanow has extensive teaching experience including DuCret School of the Arts, Pastel Society of America, the Newark Museum, the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey, private classes and workshops. She has been a member of the Jury for selection of awards for many National and International Shows.
